

LIGHTNING FLASH

Causes Three People to Be Shocked at Casky.

Lightning struck the kitchen chimney flue on the residence of Lee Claxton, at Casky, Sunday afternoon knocking it to pieces and passing into the room below struck the stove. Mrs. Claxton was in the room and the flash singed her hair and two of the children were considerably shocked, but no serious damage was sustained by any of them.

TROUBLE WITH OUR UNCLE SAM.

Eighteen-Year-Old Boy Accused Writing Threatening Letters to Farmers.

Stanford, Ky., April 30.—Jesse Underwood, age eighteen, was placed under arrest charged with writing threatening letters to several prominent farmers, warning them to raise no tobacco. The letters were placed in the hands of government secret service men, who sent detectives here to work up the case. Underwood is an orphan and was adopted by the Underwood family, prominent and wealthy Lincoln county people.

Big Native Trout.

Muncey Moss had on exhibition in the window of his business house Thursday a trout caught in Stroube's pond, south of town, that weighed 6½ pounds. Mr. Moss is an enthusiastic fisherman and pointed to his exhibit with much pride.

Goes to Sinking Fork.

Mr. Tandy B. Mason, who recently returned from Texas, will engage in farming on the McCarroll place, six miles west of the city. He moved his family to the country yesterday.

Negro Boy Shot.

A little son of John Lacey, the colored porter at the depot, was shot by a little son of Meck Lackey, also colored, Saturday afternoon. The children were at the Lacey home alone, and the Lackey child finding a pistol in a closet fired two shots, one striking the Lacey boy in the leg and the other narrowly missing another child.—Pembroke Journal.

SCHOOL ELECTION

Is In Progress at the City Court Room.

The regular annual election of two trustees of the Hopkinsville Public Schools will be held today. The election will be held at the city court room and the polls will close at four o'clock. The officers who will conduct it are, G. U. West and E. H. Price judges; Columbus Gregory Sheriff and A. M. Wallis, clerk. Messrs. J. E. McPherson and J. T. Wall, the retiring trustees, are candidates for re-election!

In the May number of the Review of Reviews there appears a reproduction of the portrait of President Roosevelt recently painted by the Hungarian artist, Philip Laszlo, and esteemed by many who have seen it as the most characteristic of the President's portraits. A brief sketch of the artist's career is printed in connection with the portrait.

NIGHT RIDER SECRETS

May Be Revealed By Two Trigg County Convicts.

Frankfort, Ky., April 30.—John Quincy Adams and General McCoy, two convicts sent from Trigg county to the Eddyville penitentiary for perjury, although they had been accused of night riding, have been sent to the local penitentiary here at the request of Gov. Willson, in order, it is thought, that he may be able to talk with them and if possible learn some of the secrets of the night riders in Trigg county. The Governor has not had an opportunity yet to confer with the convicts, and, therefore has not secured any information! The men were the only two growers in Kentucky so far who have been convicted of the accusation placed against them.

Apropos of the conference of State Governors and others called by President Roosevelt, the Review of Reviews for May presents in three articles a remarkably summary of America's national assets, together with an estimate of our wasted resources and an exposition of the methods already introduced for checking the annual waste. In the same magazine Miss Agnes Laut makes an impressive showing of Canada's recent growth and newly discovered wealth.

A Disciple of Emerson. He stood in the driving, sloshing rain on a corner contemplating the curb.

"Don't you know enough to go in when it rains?" asked an acquaintance hurrying by to shelter.

"I am a disciple of Emerson," he replied.

His acquaintance stopped in astonishment while his umbrella turned inside out. What the— he began.

"You see that curbstone," the first man continued, "where it has been worn smooth by the throngs? You never saw it when it was washed shiny clean before. Isn't it the most beautiful gray-green and polished like a slab? Emerson said you could find beauty in the rainwater channels in a pile of ashes if you looked for it. I'm finding it in the sidewalk."

The other man's comment was smothered in a fresh gust of wind and the wreck of his umbrella.—New York Sun.

Insurance and Assurance.

They were talking, the little group of agents, about the words insurance and assurance, some claiming that the first and some that the second was the better word to use.

But with a scornful laugh a Boston agent in gold rimmed spectacles said: "You are all very ignorant. Insurance is no better and no worse than assurance, and each is equally good in its place. The place for assurance is where precaution is taken against a certainty—against, that is, death. Life assurance, we should say if we spoke with perfect correctness. The place for insurance is where precaution is taken against an uncertainty, such as fire, shipwreck, burglary. Fire insurance, marine insurance, we should say."—Exchange.

Franks, the Fairbanks leader, had things all his own way at the Republican district convention in Henderson. The Taft contesting delegation from this county was given a hearing, but was turned down. Franks had himself endorsed for national committeeman. Judge A. H. Anderson and R. J. Hunter were made delegates to the Chicago convention. The Taft delegation will carry their contest to the State convention, where they expect to win.
